

(2) Native American Student Alliance (NASA) Community Coordinator

$9.50 per hour at 10-15 hours per week
(September 2014 – June 2015)

The NASA Community Coordinator will coordinate events and create a line of communication between the Native American Student Alliance (here on will be referred to as NASA), the American Indian Faculty & Staff Association, the Native American Alumni Association, and the Native American community (locally, regionally, state) to address the needs of the Native* community focusing on access to higher education as well as, historical and cultural awareness, and visibility.

American Indian Recruitment Program

The AIR Program is an afterschool program for American Indian high school students. This program is in collaboration with the University of San Diego, San Diego State University, and the University of California, San Diego. In the Fall of 2009, the Associated Students Office of Local Affairs established the Native American Affairs Director (now known as the Tribal Government Affairs Director) that works with the AIR Program. The NASA Community Coordinators will work in collaboration with the director to coordinator the AIR Program at UCSD by planning AIR Meetings, recruiting mentors, and meeting with the AIR Program executive director. The AIR meetings, in coordination with the AIR Program director, are student-initiated and student-run.
