Educational Access for Oceanic People’s Empowerment (EA’OPE) Coordinator

$11.85 per hour at 10-15 hours per week
May 2019 - June 2020

EA’OPE is a student-initiated and student-run project that seeks to provide educationally disadvantaged students from Kanaka Maoli (Native, Indigenous Hawai’ians as recognized by the Kamehameha rulings) and Pacific Islander (Polynesian, Melanesian, and Micronesian) communities in San Diego with the necessary resources to better pursue higher education by cultivating an awareness of one’s cultural, academic, political and social identity. EA’OPE will emphasize the importance of higher education for grades 6-12 students and make efforts to show that collegiate education is possible regardless of socioeconomic or cultural backgrounds. EA’OPE will be in charge of coordinating, maintaining, and establishing access events/programs that promote educational equity and equal access to higher education for Native Hawaiian and the broader Pacific Islander communities. EA’OPE will also use data information regarding access that Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities to higher education in order to gauge access initiatives, including but not limited to the following sources:

- UC San Diego Undergraduate Admissions (http://www.diversity.ucsd.edu/reports-and-data/undergraduate-dashboard.html)

Though Kanaka Maoli are recognized as Native*, Kanaka Maoli are often clustered “Native American” which goes against Native Hawaiian claims for sovereignty. Additionally Kanaka Maoli and Pacific Islanders are often clustered with “Asian” ethnic/racial categories, thus mistaken as overrepresented in institutions of higher education. Disaggregated data would reveal the low levels of educational attainment and achievement among Kanaka Maoli as well as many subgroups of Pacific Islanders students; therefore, EA’OPE Community Coordinator will collaborate with the Asian-Pacific Student Alliance (APSA), the Native American Student Alliance (NASA), and the Black Student Union (BSU) to address the various complexities and intersections of Pasifika, Blackness, and Native* that Kanaka Maoli and Pacific Islanders exist at that are oftentimes not understood or recognized by institutions of higher education or those who do not identify with the community.

* in understanding to encompass Native Alaskan, Inuits, First Nation, and Kanaka Maoli (Native, Indigenous Hawai’ians as recognized by the Kamehameha rulings)

EA’OPE will not be required to take on the student organization responsibilities of APSA, BSU, or NASA nor the responsibilities of SPACES interns who directly serve these student organizations; EA’OPE will be under SPACES Access, but not under a specific student organization
