

Academic Success Program Resource Co-Coordinators (2)

10-15 hours per week

May 2021 - June 2022

The ASP Resource Co-Coordinators will be in charge of organizing, maintaining, and innovating the ASP Booklending Program each quarter to combat income disparities and aid low income students in access to education materials necessary for academic success. The ASP Booklending Program is an entity that exists to relieve the financial burdens of higher education for circumstanced students by lending textbooks to students who demonstrate financial need. The ASP Resource Coordinator will develop upon this program to promote academic success and to retain students in this university. Coordinators will be in charge of planning and executing two events each quarter that follow the SIPHR component mission. (maybe should just stay in responsibilities) Through a knowledge of available campus resources, the coordinator should be able to expand upon the Booklending program and to provide holistic retention programming every quarter.

Job-Specific Responsibilities

- Update and record book inventory on library software on a quarterly basis;
- Maintain a budget record each quarter of book purchases;
- Communicate with UCSD Bookstore to obtain and edit quarterly textbook list;
