Queer and Trans People of Color (QTPOC)
We Are Family Access Coordinator
10-15 hours per week
May 2021 - June 2022

The QTPOC We Are Family Access Program
Initiated and coordinated by the Student Promoted Access Center for Education and Service (SPACES) at the University of California, San Diego (UC San Diego), the QTPOC We Are Family Access Program aims to address the needs and issues facing queer and trans-identified youth of color in the Greater San Diego community, particularly in their struggle to pursue higher education. By supporting queer and trans youth of color, connecting them to necessary resources, empowering them to pursue higher education, and facilitating the growth of a strong and supportive community, the QTPOC We Are Family Access Program serves to provide structured support for queer and trans students of color and promote greater educational equity for all students of intersecting identities such as race, gender, class, nationality, sexuality, and ability. Accordingly, the QTPOC Access Coordinator shall oversee, maintain, and develop the We Are Family Access Program by initiating and coordinating programs in line with this mission of promoting access to higher education and serving as a resource for queer youth of color.

Job-Specific Responsibilities
- In the case that there is not a functioning QTPOC board the QTPOC Retention Coordinator and the QTPOC Access Coordinator should act as co-QTPOC Community Coordinators that:
  - collectively strive for the retention of Queer and Trans students
  - coordinate meetings with the LGBT Resource Center Assistant Director at least once a year to (a) ensure a relationship between the center and QTPOC and (b) to obtain information on possible collaboration with other organizations/programs and the greater QTPOC Community
- Meet with Assistant Director of LGBTRC as needed for collaboration of access events;
- Facilitate QTPOC/queer identity centered workshops at all SPACES CORE organization High School Conferences
- Meet as needed with QTPOC Retention Coordinator to collaborate and provide holistic support;
- Coordinate one access event and program per quarter that pertain to the experience of queer students of color, both off site and at UC San Diego
- Work with an advisor to build sustainable connections with local San Diego high school students, faculty, and staff to continue establishing the presence and impact of the Access Program in the community;
- Create and maintain a relationship with regional coordinators for centers with similar needs, including but not limited to: the Hillcrest Youth Center, the Gay and Lesbian and Straight Education Network (GLSEN), Gay-Straight Alliance Network; and the San Diego’s Queer Youth Leadership Conference
- Advise program finances and present budget proposals to the Student-Initiated Access Programs and Service (SIAPS) and the Student-Promoted Access Center for Education and Service (SPACES)
• Have an email list of high school students
• Attend QTPOC Board meetings as a QTPOC board member, update QTPOC Board on progress of projects, delegate tasks to and request support from QTPOC Board as needed, and attend all QTPOC Board Retreats;
